

Wild Land Restoration - Eagle Project

EAGLES

60 Troop 832 Scouts have reached Scouting's highest rank, Eagle Scout.

Recent Eagle Projects include service to Woodlands Assn, Contra Costa Library, Northgate High School, Seven Hills School, Mt. Diablo Interpretive Assn and East Bay Regional Parks. Projects include building planter boxes and retaining walls, U.S. flag collection and retirement, wild lands restoration, and trail signage.

Troop 832 emphasizes adventure, advancement, self-reliance, responsibility, service to others and leadership in a supportive atmosphere of fun and friendship.
